Dominion Middle School, Immaculate Conception School, Our Lady of Peace School, and Calumet Christian School.

Last year, 25 Chamber members hosted tables and helped present awards. The cost to host a table is $55.00. This is a great opportunity to meet some of our budding leaders and to communicate with students, parents and teachers about the Chamber's role-and your own company's role in Clintonville. Call the Chamber at 262-2790 to secure your reservation. Call early because this popular event will fill up fast.

2001 Advertising

*A Full Year of Advertising and You Write Only One Check!
A Business Owner's Dream!*

After tremendous success in 2000, the Chamber is introducing the advertising opportunities for Celebrate Clintonville 2001. This year's events begin with the April 28th "Viva Las Vegas," featuring Mike Albert and the Big "E" Band. This concert has a regional audience. Next, on July 4th, your company will be advertised at the pre-fireworks concert at Whetstone, and in December, you'll be featured at retailers throughout Clintonville in the 2nd annual "Home for the Holidays" promotion.

The advertising options range in price to meet the needs of every budget. Don't be left out of this exceptional opportunity. The deadline for being included in all three events is March 15th. If you have questions or would like to sign up, please call Bill Montgomery at 885-0880. The Clintonville community needs to know about your business, and the Chamber has a great way to get your name in front of them.

Relax at the April BAH at considerITdesign

The Business After Hours on Thursday, April 19th, 5:00 - 7:30 PM is at considerITdesign, a web service bureau at 3387 N. High St. All six owners will be there with something you might expect — hors d'oeuvres — and something you might not — web site analysis for your very own business.

On the 19th, Jeff, Todd, and the others will "take you on a tour" of their business by seating you at a computer and showing you what a site can do for you. If you are interested in getting a free site analysis that night, you might give them a call beforehand at 246-0347 or visit their web site at www.considerITdesign.com. Or, just show up for food, drink and the pleasure of the company of your colleagues!

UNCLAIMED FUNDS!

A Chamber member's name was drawn to win $150+ at the March 6th BAH at The Center on High. But was he or she there to win the $??? We'll draw again at the April 19th BAH at considerITdesign. Remember, you must be present to win!

Chamber Member Profile: Mark Storey

Mark Storey is our featured chamber member for March. Mark is a principal at Storey Management Consulting, which focuses on business and personal coaching as well as organizational development.

Brief Career Sketch: Extensive managerial background in sales and service. Mark has been both an internal and external consultant for the last 10+ years.

Education: BS from OSU and MBA from Franklin University.

First Job: Veterinary technician.

What I Learned: Life is precious; tender loving care is powerful.

Management Philosophy: Provide respect, opportunity, autonomy, communicate, communicate, and communicate some more.

Recent Business

Accomplishment: Completed 6 months of Business Coach training.

How has my industry changed in the last decade: Many more displaced managers have hung out their consultant shingles.

If I could change one thing about my industry it would be: Increased awareness of the importance of organized development and coaching.

The Chamber has helped my business: To network.

What I do to relax: Read and watch television.

What it all means: Be nice and have fun.

These Folks Make It Happen!

The Chamber would like to recognize all the wonderful people who volunteer their time to work on our committees and task forces. They are busy people, many of whom own their own businesses, but who feel that a commitment to the Chamber and the business district of Clintonville is worthy of their time. Should you see any of these people around Clintonville, approach them and thank them for working towards a stronger Clintonville. Each month we will list those who serve on different committees and/or task forces.

The Communication Committee puts together the newsletter articles and other public relations information. They are Catherine DeAngelis - The Center on High, Kathleen Hutton - This Week Newspapers, Kate Logsdon - Fifth Third Bank, Bill Montgomery - WRFD Radio, Pete Smith - Smith Consulting Services, and chair Sharon Daye - Central Ohio Dance Academy. We also would like to thank Gail Rinehart - HER Realtors for her time with the committee and Laura Rolfe - Executive Director for her editing and many articles.

Want to help build a stronger Chamber? Call the Chamber office at 262-2790 for the time commitments for any of the committees or task forces.

Heard on the Street

Spring is coming and it's time to get out and about! This month we'll visit a few chamber member retailers, and we'll put our ear to the ground to hear what folks are saying....

Ed Hoffman, owner of Hoffman's Book Shop, 211 Arcadia, shows us what a beautiful store façade looks like! You, too, can spruce up your store front with the façade loans and grants available through the city of Columbus for properties in the UCO areas. Call the chamber. And, come check out Ed's stacks and stacks of interesting books.

Melissa Goodrich proudly invites you to her new location for Colonial Candy Shoppe at 3519 N. High St. Try out Melissa's M&M machine!

Anand Saha (R) welcomes guests including chamber member Carl Yaffey, (2nd from L) to Mozart's Café's annual Mozart's Birthday celebration. The shop at 2885 N. High St. was packed all day and the food was fabulous!

"Have you seen the changes to Arjuna Movement Arts (3274 N. High) and their music and bookstore? Wow!"

"Weiland's Market (3600 Indianola Ave.) is just great! I asked them if they would get a specialty parsley for me and the next time I went in, it was waiting for me!"

"Is someone holding a spring clean-up this year? And why don't store owners clean the graffiti off the sides of their buildings?"

"I went to Oaksmith Cabinet Fronts (5212 N. High St.) because I'm redesigning my kitchen. What a great resource."

MARCH LUNCHEON REVEALS PAST LIVES!

Just who were your colleagues in their past lives? One of them was Dave Thomas' housekeeper! Another was a college professor. One was a chemist. Another was a nurse. These mystery people are all doing very different jobs now, but they bring their experience to their current work.

You'll get a chance to find out just who-did-what at the March 20th monthly chamber luncheon. The Networking Committee will help you match your Chamber friends to their past careers.

Call the Chamber at 262-2790 or email us with your luncheon reservation by Thursday, March 15th, and tell us at the same time what you did in a past career or job.

At the March 20th luncheon, wear a clue! We'll make the rounds, meet each other and make some guesses, and someone will win a prize for making the most correct matches.
