

THE NEW 2002 CLINTONVILLE DIRECTORY

The Clintonville Chamber Phone Directory is developing quite a reputation — quite a good one! Clintonville residents call the Chamber to find out when the new edition is coming out because Clintonville's 24,500 residents really use it! This year the Clintonville Chamber will publish a new and even better directory.

With your Chamber membership you receive free, members-only listings in the directory. But your ad in the members-only yellow pages helps you reach the highest number of people in your target market. Your ad is visible daily to residents, businesses and organizations looking for information about Clintonville businesses. The enclosed rate card and contract contain all you need to sign up. And, look for a call from Ad Representative, Jan Jaeger.

CHAMBER WANTS TO ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS AT THE ARTS FESTIVAL

It is always hard to say goodbye to summer, but with the end of summer comes the annual Clintonville Arts Festival. The Chamber will hand out your promotional goodies in their "Shop Clintonville" bags on Saturday September 8th near the Whetstone Recreation Center. Bring us your chip clips, screen sweeps, pens, etc. for us to give away to Festival attendees. It is an easy way to get your name out to the public. We did this at the Rose Festival in June and it was a big hit. Why not be part of the fun this time?

Chamber Members Sighted in Golf Carts!

Golfers braved the heat to enjoy a fun day of golf, great scenery and networking on Friday August 10th. The 6th Annual Golf Classic was held at the beautiful Westchester Golf Course.

Sorry to say, none of the golfers won the $10,000 Hole in One sponsored by Prospect Bank but four other lucky golfers did take home prizes as the winning team!

Congratulations to John Smiley's team, who narrowly beat out the Welsh team. Ackerman Credit Union and Anthem Insurance were tournament sponsors. A big thanks goes to Tim Rabold of Thompson-Cunningham Insurance and John Smiley of Prospect Bank for organizing the event.
